

Acceptable Use Form

Woods Charter School

Student Internet, WCS Network, and Device Use

Through the use of the Internet, WCS Network, and WCS devices, students can use hundreds of databases, resources, images, and computer services from all over the world. Woods Charter School believes the resources available through the Internet, WCS Network, and school devices offer significant opportunities for teaching and learning; however, they must be used in a responsible manner.

Student Agreement

Students who use school devices and utilize the Internet, WCS Network, with school or personal equipment, agree to the statements below:

- I will use the Internet, WCS Network, and WCS devices for appropriate educational uses only.
- I will not use the WCS Network or devices for gaming purposes, or play unapproved games on an electronic device.
- I will report any misuse of the Internet or WCS Network to my teacher or administrator immediately.
- I will not give out my personal information (usernames/passwords), or the information of others.
- I will properly log off the WCS Network and online applications.
- I will not delete files, email, and other data belonging to other WCS users.
- I realize that my actions, devices, & accounts are not private & may be subject to inspection.
- I will tell my teacher, not peers, right away if I come across any information that makes me feel uncomfortable or that I know I should not be looking at.
- Inappropriate forms of direct electronic communications, such as instant messaging and texting, are not permitted.
- Unapproved use of the school's WCS Network bandwidth for multimedia access or downloads, such as streaming audio and video or mp3 files not related to class educational activities, is prohibited.
- Any attempt to break into the school's WCS Network, computers, Internet access, codes, security and passwords is strictly prohibited.
- Vandalism, bullying, and harassment are strictly prohibited.
